Q. 4. Are any recommended to act as Missionaries?

A. John Robinson.

Q. 5. Who have died the past Year?

A. 1. RICHARD SEED, an old, well known Preacher. He travelled several years with a fair character, and finished his earthly course by an apoplectic fit; which, altho' a sudden call, we are well satisfied, found him prepared for his heavenly inheritance.

2. JOHN ATKIN, a man of great simplicity and honesty, who travelled about fourteen years. He ended his days in peace.

3. THOMAS HANSON, who departed this life Oct. 18, 1804, in the 72nd. year of his age, and forty-fifth of his ministry. He spent about 22 years in the Vineyard of the Lord, as an Itinerant Preacher; and when able to bear the fatigues of Itinerancy no longer, he retired to Horbury, near Wakefield, the place of his nativity; where he spent the last 20 years of his life, copying the example of his Lord and Master "who went about doing good." He was a plain, honeſt, faithful, zealous man. His death was a comment on the words of the Pſalmiſt, "Mark the perfect, and behold the upright, for the end of that man is peace."

4. Christopher Watkins. He was a man of God, and zealous to promote his glory, and the ſalvation of immortal ſouls. In this work he was engaged from the age of 18 years, till bodily diſeaſes rendered him unable to continue longer in it. He laboured under ſome ſevere afflictions for many years, but patiently endured them all. For the ſpace of about two months before his death, he was confined to his houſe, during which time he was very happy in God, and rejoiced much in ſure and certain hope of the glory to be revealed. He often ſaid, that all his hopes of heaven depended only on the Redemption by Chriſt Jeſus, frequently repeating thoſe words:

"Thy blood and righteouſneſs,
"I make my only plea:"

A few days before his death, he ſaid to a friend, "Oh! what a precious Saviour is Jeſus! a precious Prophet, a precious Prieſt, a precious King! Yea, he is altogether precious." The day before his departure, he ſaid to a friend who came to ſee him: "Happy! Happy!" Here his voice failed him; but recovering a little, he ſaid, "I hope to be ſoon with Jeſus." After this he ſpake no more, and died a witneſs of the doctrine which he had long taught, namely:—That the blood of Jeſus Chriſt cleanſeth from all ſin.

5. Joseph Algar. After travelling many years, we truſt he died in the Lord.

6. Joseph Pescod, aged 54 years. He travelled as an Itinerant Preacher 28 years, with an unblemiſhed character. He was a man of ſound judgment, and clear experience in the things of God. He was wont maturely to conſider the ſubjects on which he diſcourſed, and treated them in ſuch an orderly manner, as rendered his preaching both pleaſing and profitable to his hearers.

He

He was a good Soldier of Jefus Chrift, and defended his caufe in his fpirit. His temper was even, and his mind feemed to be continually under the influence of divine grace: fo that whether in the pulpit or with his friends, he conducted himfelf like a Chriftian. His fentiments were liberal; nevertheleſs, he was firmly attached to the doctrines of the goſpel as taught by us, and to our dicipline, which he ſtrongly enforced.

He met with difficulties in the performance of his duty; but encountered them all with becoming firmneſs.

His aſthmatic complaint (which was brought on by fleeping in damp beds, and breathing an unwholeſome air) frequently deprived him of his reſt, and a paralytic ſtroke, at length enfeebled his powers of body and mind. But amidſt the decays of nature, his patience was invincible, and his confidence firm in his God.

A few hours before he died, he ſaid, "I find him lifting up my head; I thank God, the ſting of death is gone: nevertheleſs, dying is not pleaſant work."

He departed this life, May, 16, 1805.——In him the Church of God has loſt a faithful Preacher, and his Widow one of the beſt of Huſbands.

7. James M'Mullen. He was a man of ſtrong and quick underſtanding, uniting therewith genuine and ſolid piety;—inflexible in religious diſcipline, yet of an amiable and compaſſionate diſpoſition. Integrity was the leading feature of his character, from which he never ſwerved under any influence of fear or love. He was truly diſintereſted in all his worldly views, labouring with his hands, without burdening the connection, when unable to travel through debility of body. And when he believed it to be his duty to forſake his country for the word and glory of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, he cheerfully propoſed himſelf as a Miſſionary for Gibraltar, in which place he fell a victim to the late malignant fever which raged ſo violently there, and carried off alſo in a few days his pious and amiable wife. He died with the moſt entire reſignation, and in the the full triumph of faith, leaving behind him an only daughter. He travelled in our connexion for fixteen years.

Q. 6. Are there any objections to any of our Preachers?

A. They were examined one by one.

Q. Has any one defifted from travelling?

A. Abraham Mofely.

N. B. RICHARD ELLIOT was not expelled from the Connection the laft Conference, but defifted from travelling of his own accord.

Q. 8. How are the Preachers ftationed this year?

For High-houſe, Weardale, in the Hexham circuit.

NEW RULES AND REGULATIONS.

Q. 15. Can any plan be adopted, preferable to that which we have generally purſued, in order to expedite buſineſs in our Conferences?

A. 1ſt.

A. 1*ſt.* As ſoon as the Deed of Declaration is filled up, and the Preſident and Secretary are choſen, let the Clerks be immediately appointed, and ſuch ſtanding Committees, as are in general found to be neceſſary, viz.

1. A Committee, to whom the Minutes of the Diſtricts may be referred, after they have been read in full Conference, in order that thoſe particulars, which are of importance, may be digeſted under proper heads.

2. A Committee for Book Affairs: 3, one for Kingſwood School: 4, a Financial Committee, to take into conſideration the temporal ſtate of the connexion, and conſult concerning the ways and means to be adopted, that the expenditure may not exceed the income: 5, a Committee, conſiſting of the Repreſentatives of Diſtricts, to arrange and prepare for examination, a Plan, with regard to Collections for Chapels.

A. 2. Let thoſe parts of the Minutes of Diſtricts, which relate to financial matters, be referred to the Clerks, as ſoon as they are appointed, that they may draw up their general ſtatements, and lay them before the Financial Committee: for, by theſe means, that Committee will be able to deliver their report at an early period of the Conference.

3. Let the Subſcriptions, both of the Preachers and People to the Preachers' Fund, and the collections for Kingſwood ſchool, be paid to the reſpective Treaſurers at proper times, to be allotted for that purpoſe. Afterwards let the Clerks read in public to the whole Conference, their ſeveral accounts of the ſums which have been received.

4. Let the Committee appointed to digeſt, &c. the Minutes of the Diſtricts, compile therefrom complete liſts (1) of the Preachers who are to be admitted into full Connexion; (2) of thoſe who remain on trial, ſpecifying diſtinctly how long each has travelled: (3) of the Preachers recommended by the Diſtrict Committees for admiſſion on trial; (4) of thoſe who have deſiſted from travelling; (5) of any who may have died;

died; and laſtly, of the Numbers in Society throughout the whole Connexion. And in order to furniſh the neceſſary information for theſe liſts, let the Diſtrict Minutes in future be made more exact and complete on all the ſubjects here enumerated. Theſe liſts, we apprehend, will be much more ſpeedily read in Conference than compiled there, according to our practice in time paſt.

Q. 16. What can be done to expedite the buſineſs of ſtationing the Preachers?

A. 1. Let not the Diſtrict Committees interfere with the Stations of the Preachers.

2. Let no letters concerning Stations be in the leaſt degree regarded, but ſuch as come from the Majorities of regular Quarterly Meetings.

N. B. Letters which may be ſent from Committees, ſhall not be attended to any more than thoſe from Individuals.

3. Let the Letters which are ſent from the Quarterly Meetings be carefully read and conſidered firſt by the Stationing Committee, and then by the Conference.

4. Let the appointments made by the Stationing Committee be final, in reſpect to all the Preachers upon trial.

Q. 17. Are not ſome of the younger Preachers in danger of departing from our leading doctrines?

A. We fear they are, and reſolve that, in future, before any Preacher be admitted into full connexion, he ſhall be required to give a full and explicit declaration of his faith, as to thoſe Doctrines, in the preſence of the Conference.

Q. 18. Are we all ſufficiently careful in meeting the Societies after preaching, eſpecially in Country places?

A. We fear not; and as we judge this to be of great importance, we earneſtly recommend that it be ſtrictly attended to. And we likewiſe adviſe that no Society-meeting, open to ſtrangers, be held oftener than once a month.

Q. 19.

Q. 19. Has ſufficient care been taken, with reſpect to the admiſſion of proper perſons only to the Lord's Supper where it is adminiſtred in our Chapels?

A. We fear not always; and therefore we here repeat our former Rule on this ſubject, and require that it be ſtrictly enforced, viz. "No perſon ſhall be ſuffered on any pretence to partake of the Lord's Supper among us, unleſs he be a Member of our Society, or receive a Note of admiſſion from the Superintendant, which Note muſt be renewed Quarterly. And if any Leaders, Stewards, or Truſtees refuſe to be regulated by this Rule, the Sacrament ſhall not be adminiſtered where this is the caſe." Minutes of the year 1796.

Q. 20. Are any regulations neceſſary with regard to ſinging?

A. 1. Let no inſtruments of Muſic be introduced into the Singers Seats, except a Baſs Viol, ſhould the principal Singer require it.

2. Let no Books of Hymns be henceforth uſed in our Chapels except the Hymn-books printed for our Book-Room.

3. Let no Pieces, as they are called, in which Recitatives, by ſingle men, Solos, by ſingle women, Fuguing, (or different words ſung by different voices at the ſame time,) are introduced, be ſung in our Chapels.

4. Let the original, ſimple, grave, and devotional ſtyle be carefully preſerved, which inſtead of drawing the attention to the ſinging and the Singers, is ſo admirably calculated to draw off the attention from both, and to raiſe the ſoul to God only.

5. Let no muſical Feſtivals, or, as they are ſometimes termed, Selections of Sacred Muſic, be either encouraged or permitted in any of our Chapels; in which performances, the genuine dignity of ſpiritual worſhip is groſsly abuſed, under the pretence of getting money for charitable purpoſes; which we have have ſufficient proof, has been procured as amply, where nothing of the kind has been introduced, but the Charity recommended to the people in the name of GOD.

6. Let no Preacher ſuffer any thing to be done in the Chapel where he officiates but what is according to the eſtabliſhed uſuages of Methodiſm; knowing that he is accountable to GOD for whatever he does, or permits to be done, during the times he is in poſſeſſion of the Pulpit.

7. Let no Preacher, therefore, ſuffer his right to conduct every part of the worſhip of Almighty God, to be infringed on, either by ſingers or others, but let him ſacredly preſerve, and calmly maintain his authority, as he who ſacrifices this, ſacrifices not only Methodiſm, but the ſpirit and deſign of Chriſtianity.

Q. 21. Are any Regulations neceſſary with regard to our Book-affairs?

A. 1. Let our former Rules, which go to reſtrain all the Brethren from printing, and publiſhing books, on their own account, be ſtrictly enforced.

2. Let the preſent practice of ſelling books, publiſhed by other bookſellers, Bibles excepted, be diſcontinued. Nevertheleſs.

3. The Book-Committee in London ſhall have a diſcretionary power, with reſpect to advertiſing books on the cover of the Magazine.

4. Let a book be provided in every Circuit, for entering therein a detailed Account of the Stock of books on hand at that place, as was ordered by a former Conference, and let a copy of this account be annually laid before the Book-Steward.

5. Let the Preachers endeavour by every prudent and proper mean, to reduce the ſtock of books in all the Circuits.

Q. 22. Can any thing be done to affift thofe of our poor Brethren that have families, and are ftationed in the poorer Circuits?

A. As we believe a regular, weekly allowance for board, more or lefs, as may be judged requifite, all circumftances confidered, would moft effectually relieve them, we recomomend it to the Quartely-Meetings of thofe Circuits, in which this is not already done, to take into their ferious confideration, the propriety, and neceffity of doing it.

Q. 23 What can be done to extricate the Connexion from its prefent pecuniary embarraffments?

A. 1. Let the rule which requires that every Circuit fhall provide at leaft for one family be carefully obferved.

2. Let the following Rule made at Leeds in 1801, be ftrictly enforced, viz. "If any Circuit petition the Conference for a Preacher, and the petition be granted, every extraordinary expence, incurred by the removal of fuch Preacher to his new Circuit, fhall be borne by that Circuit.

3. Let no more Preachers be called out into the work than the Connexion can fupport.

4. Let greater caution be ufed as to multiplying chapels, which not only load the Societies with heavy debts, greater than they can bear, but require an increafe of Preachers to fupply them, particularly on the Lord's-days.

5. In ftationing the Preachers, let particular care be taken that the Removals be as fhort as poffible; much money having, we fear, been fometimes needlefsly expended in removing families to a greater diftance, than was either neceffary or expedient, from the place of their laft appointment.

Q. 24. Can any ftep be taken in aid of the general Fund for the fupport of Kingswood-School, and the education of the Preacher's children?

A. 1.

A. 1. Let the Preachers, in making the annual Collection for that charity, ſtate to the congregations the great increaſe of the children, both ſons and daughters that are dependant upon it for their education, as well as the high price of moſt articles of proviſion.

2. Let four Guineas be paid annually by the Parents of each boy at the School, towards his clothing, and let the Poſtage of all Letters to the boys, and all expence of their travelling to and from the School be alſo defrayed by them.

Q. 25. What can be done for the ſupport of our important Miſſions?

A. 1, Let annual ſubſcriptions be taken in by the General ſuperintendant of the Miſſions, or the ſuperintendants of Circuits, and let the ſums thus raiſed, be tranſmitted to the Book-Steward as ſoon as poſſible.

2. Let the Collection, which has been frequently made for their ſupport in our congregations, in Town and Country, be annual; and let the Preachers who make this Collection preach expreſsly on the ſubject at the time of making it, eſpecially, in all the larger places, and let the money thus collected be alſo tranſmitted to the Book-ſteward, at the fartheſt before Chriſtmas.

Q. 26. Who are the committee for the enſuing year for guarding our privileges?

A. The Rev. Dr. Coke, George Wolff, Eſq. Chriſtopher Sundius, Eſq. William Marriot, Eſq. Mr. Joſeph Butterworth, Mr. Robert Middleton, Mr. Joſeph Bulmer, Mr. Allan, Mr. Laurence Haſlope, The General Steward of the London Circuit, Thomas Thompſon, Eſq. of Hull, Thomas Holy Eſq. Sheffield, Mr. Mr. John Ward, junior, of Durham, and all the Preachers appointed for London.

N.B. 1. The Conference authorize the Book-Steward, in London, to pay all expences attending any ſuit at Law which may be entered into under the direction of the above Committee.

2. The Conference order that a Collection shall be made in every Circuit, in which such Law proceedings may originate, in order to defray such expence, and that the Money so collected shall be sent to the Book-Steward as soon as possible.

Q. 27. Are the monthly Fasts and weekly Prayer-Meetings, appointed two years ago, to be continued?

A. By all means: we judge they were never more necessary to be observed, and we earnestly exhort all our Societies to a diligent and concientious observance of them.

Q. 28. Where and when shall our next Conference be held?

A. In Leeds on the last Monday in July, 1806.

Signed in behalf and by order of the Conference.

JOSEPH BENSON, SECRETARY.

ADDRESSES.

ADDRESSES.

To the MEMBERS of the METHODIST-SOCIETY, throughout GREAT-BRITAIN.

Very dear Brethren,

We find ourſelves under the neceſſity of addreſſing you in regard to the ſtate of our Finances. We are indeed very reluctant to mention any thing on this ſubject, well knowing your generoſity and kind exertions in this reſpect, and would rather ſuffer much than do it. But the ſituation of our temporal concerns requires it of us. Notwithſtanding the extraordinaries of the paſt year have in general been left unpaid, we have been unable to defray all the ordinary deficiencies of Salaries, rent, &c. without borrowing a conſiderable ſum of money. Several of the Preachers have gone from the Conference under very great embarraſſments. And yet amidſt all our difficulties, we cannot conſent to apply to you for an extraordinary ſubſcription. Nothing but irreſiſtible neceſſity could prevail upon us to adopt that meaſure again, though it were only for one year.

We therefore entered into a ſerious conſideration of the moſt proper method of obtaining a permanent relief. And can think of nothing equal to that original plan which Mr. Weſley eſtabliſhed at the firſt inſtitution of Methodiſm, viz. that, upon an average, a penny a week ſhould be advanced by every member in the Claſſes, and one ſhilling at each Quarterly viſitation. This with the Yearly Collection, and the profits of the Book-room, would, we think, be ſufficient to relieve us in our ſtate of embarraſſment.

You muſt not, however, infer, Brethren, from what we have here obſerved, that Mr. Weſley's plan has been neglected in the Circuits in general. The greateſt part of them have purſued it in a degree. Nay in ſeveral there is more collected annually than the amount of a penny a week and a ſhilling a quarter from each member; and in ſome Circuits theſe ſums are even doubled in the courſe of the year; and what is ſtill more remarkable, fome of thefe Circuits may be numbered among the pooreft in the Connexion.

There is another particular, mentioned in the preceding rules, (fee Page33) which we beg leave to touch upon with great delicacy and tendernefs, viz. the great importance of a regular, weekly allowance for the board of our married Preachers. In many of the Circuits this point is fully attended to; but in a great many others it is not. An allowance, indeed, in the latter cafe is made for the Preacher while he refides in the principal place in the Circuit; but during his abfence from this place, which may be half or two-thirds of his time, his Family is left without any allowance of this kind at all. This exceedingly diftreffes the Preacher as well as his Family, if he have no property of his own, as it muft wherever the facred relative duties of life are regarded as they fhould be. This neglect may have arifen in many inftances from want of confideration; but we indulge very great confidence, that our beloved Brethren, whom thefe obfervations may concern will in future do what they can to remedy this evil.

We really would not, much beloved Bretheren, urge thefe particulars upon you, but from a fenfe of duty, and an ardent love for the caufe of God. The profperity if not the exiftence, of our Connexion, depends on our doing fomething effectual in the particulars mentioned above: nor can we imagine any thing lefs objectionable than the fimple plan of Methodifm above propofed, introduced and fanctioned by Mr. Wefley.

Altho' the particular occafion of our now addreffing you, dear Brethren, is, as has been obferved, of a fecular nature, we rejoice to embrace the opportunity which is thus afforded us, of adding a few words on another and more pleafing fubject. We have to inform you then, that amidft all our temporal difficulties, the work of God profpers much and is greatly enlarged in many parts of our Connexion. Many of the Societies, as you will obferve by comparing thefe Minutes with thofe of laft year, are much encreafed in Number: the Congregations are alſo larger, new Societies and Congregations are formed in fundry places, and many new Chapels have lately been opened, while a great number are now building or are to be erected the enſuing year. We have reaſon to believe alſo that there is, upon the whole, an increaſe of vital, genuine piety in great numbers of the people under our care. We judge, among other evidences of this which might be mentioned, that the unceaſing efforts which are made to enlarge the work of God, the great increaſe of charitable Inſtitutions among us, ſuch as Sunday-Schools for the education of poor children, and Benevolent Societies for the relief of the ſick poor of all denominations, with the liberal manner in which all ſuch Inſtitutions are ſupported, are no contemptible proofs that we are not miſtaken in our ideas of this matter, ſince in theſe and ſuch like ways, our people ſhew their faith by their works, as directed by our Lord and his Apoſtles. We truſt alſo that ſpiritual-mindedneſs, and an humble, conſcientious and cloſe walking with God, are on the increaſe with many. We have to regret, however, that this is by no means the caſe with all. In ſome places, an undue attachment to worldly buſineſs, cares and gains, with, perhaps, an increaſe of riches, prevents any growth in an heavenly and devotional ſpirit, and all true progreſs in the divine life. Hence, among other evils, a carnal contention, like that at Corinth of old, for certain preachers to be ſtationed with them in preference to others, without taking into due conſideration the impoſſibility of our meeting the wiſhes of all the Circuits in this particular. Theſe are evils, dear Brethren, which we have to deplore, and which we muſt entreat you all to guard againſt in future, as you wiſh to ſee the work of God revive and ſpread ſtill more among you. And ſurely the alarming times, and the dangers which continue to threaten our country, call loudly upon us to amend whatever is amiſs, to repent, do our firſt works, watch, pray, and turn to God with full purpose of heart. In these respects, Brethren, we trust you will be like minded with us; or rather that your zeal and diligence will provoke us to still greater ardour in the prosecution of the glorious cause in which we are all engaged. The good Lord grant we may not be disappointed in these our expectations!

And now to the Grace of God and to his holy keeping we recommend you. Pardon the liberty we take in this brotherly address. The burden of the Lord is upon us: and we are confident you will excuse us, and, we hope and believe, will meet our views in these important particulars.

Signed in behalf and by order of the Conference, } THOMAS COKE, President. JOSEPH BENSON, Secretary.

Sheffield, August 9, 1805.

The ADDRESS from the IRISH to the BRITISH CONFERENCE.

Beloved Fathers and Brethren in Christ.

THE advice given in your last sympathizing Address, respecting the work of God, in this part of the united kingdom, we have felt to be of vast importance, and under this impression, by the grace of God, we have endeavoured to conduct ourselves during the past year, and our heavenly Father, who observed our distress, and inspired us with a hope of more prosperous days, was pleased to accompany our labours with his blessing, and sent the word of his grace to many hearts.

On minutely enquiring into the progress of the Gospel in our Land, we have had much reason to bless the name of the Lord, for tho' our increase has been small, the fields appear white before us, and ready for the harvest, so that we are greatly encouraged to look for a large and ſpeedy outpouring of the Holy Spirit, and we feel the language of our hearts to be,

"On all the earth thy Spirit ſhow'r,
The earth in righteouſneſs renew."

The doctrine of juſtification by faith in the Lord Jeſus, we feel to be moſt wholeſome and comfortable; which, indeed cannot be otherwiſe to men ſenſible of their nature's depravity, and their utter inability of themſelves to merit the favour of God, in whole or in part, and therefore to every congregation we are happy in proclaiming with St. Paul, "Be it known unto you,—men and brethren, that through this Man is preached unto you the forgiveneſs of ſins; and by him all that believe, are juſtified from all things, from which they could not be juſtified by the law of Moſes." Equal in our eſtimation, ſtands the doctrine of Chriſtian Perfection; and tho' we never from our pulpits, make uſe of the term ſinleſs Perfection, yet we are fully of opinion that the "blood of Jeſus Chriſt cleanſeth from all ſin." And we ſcruple not to ſay, that they undervalue, (tho' without deſign,) the Blood of the Covenant, who refuſe to acknowledge its cleanſing efficacy now. While we ſee theſe doctrines ſhining forth throughout the ſacred pages, we believe it to be our duty to proclaim them in the moſt public manner, regardleſs of the ill-natured remarks of ſelf-righteous Phariſees on the one hand, and of ſuperficial Evangeliſts on the other.

That love of chriſtian diſcipline, which you ſo ſtrongly recommend, appears to be increaſing among us; for we ſee it to be eſſentially neceſſary for the performance of that apoſtolic rule, "Let all things be done decently, and in order." A people who relax in diſcipline, are ſtrangers to order and decency; and if order and decency be wanting, they have nothing but mere profeſſion, to recommend them to thoſe who are without, which will never edify the thinking and diſcerning. The ſpirit of pure love, is that by which which we wiſh to be governed, knowing aſſuredly that love will make us intimately one; that love will teach us how to rule, and how to obey; and that love is the mark which Chriſt hath ſet upon his diſciples.

Your compliance at all times with our requeſt for our old and greatly beloved friend and brother, Dr. Coke, moſt certainly increaſes our love to you. And as we ſee more and more, the importance of the Doctor's preſence to our part of the connexion, we unanimouſly requeſt that you will appoint him our Preſident for the enſuing year. We need not ſay, that the granting this requeſt, will be a great addition to former favours.

We have unanimouſly choſen our good and faithful Brother Averell to be our repreſentative this year alſo, who will communicate to you ſuch information concerning us, as you may think proper to require.

That the great Head of the Church, may ſtill watch over you for good; inſpire you with wiſdom in all your councils; inflame your hearts with love; and proſper your miniſterial way more than ever, is, dear Fathers and Brethren, the ſincere and hearty prayer, of,

Your Brethren in Chriſt, and in the Miniſtry of his holy Goſpel.———

Signed in behalf of the Conference.

SAMUEL STEELE, Secretary.

ADDRESS FROM THE BRITISH TO THE IRISH CONFERENCE.

Dear Brethren,

IN your truly evangelical Addreſs to the Britiſh Conference, which we received by our worthy Brother Averell, we perceive with pleaſure, that our Chriſtian ſympathy and advice, were received in the ſame ſpirit, which dictated them; and that our "heavenly Father," who had inſpired your hearts " with a hope of more proſperous days," has been pleaſed to accompany your labours with his bleſſing, and has ſent " the word of his grace with power to many hearts."

Go on and proſper. He that ſitteth in the heavens will countenance and bleſs your endeavours. God hath ever rewarded the miniſterial induſtry of his ſervants with ſucceſs. Diligence and reward are nearly connected; and He who hath filled your hearts with that burning zeal to promote the intereſts of the Croſs, will behold your ardour with approbation, and the event ſhall juſtify your moſt ſanguine expectations.

Many are the impediments which are found in the way, to obſtruct the progreſs of the work of God; but our conſolation is, that He, who cannot lie, hath ſaid, " Lo! I am with you," and who can doubt the veracity of his word?

Under his influence, dear Brethren, let us carry the illuminating truth of God among the yet untaught and depraved children of men; and that glorious Goſpel, which we preach, will diſpel the night of error and of ſin, and thouſands, and tens of thouſands be converted unto God; our ſouls will rejoice over the ſpoils of the enemy, and in the triumph of the Redeemer.

It affords us conſiderable pleaſure to perceive your attachment to thoſe truths, which are able to make men wiſe unto ſalvation. Any departure from them, however diſguiſed by the wit and ingenuity of men, deprives ſouls of the benefit of ſaving inſtruction; defeats, more or leſs, the ends of the Chriſtian miniſtry; and even robs Chriſt of his glory!

Foreſeeing the evil reſulting from erroneous opinions, which, without great caution, we are certain would creep in amongſt us, we have taken the ſubject into conſideration with more than uſual attention, and are determined to reſiſt the ſlighteſt departure from thoſe heavenly doctrines, taught us in the Holy Scriptures; and which were believed and preached, by our late venerable Father in the Gospel, the Rev. Mr. John Wesley.

We congratulate you, dear Brethren, and are grateful to the Head of the Church, for that peace and unity which prevail among you; and that love of Christian discipline which you express.

We likewise, through the mercy of God, are in a great measure saved from the bitterness of debate, and the strife of contrary opinions, and live in the union of Christian, and brotherly love; and are determined to support that regularity, that decency and order in in our societies, which become the churches of the saints.

In compliance with your request, we appoint the Rev. Dr. Coke, to be the President of the next Irish Conference. He has been long to us, "a greatly beloved friend and brother;" and we pray, that he may meet you, in all the fulness of the blessing of the Gospel of Peace.

Now Brethren, we commend you to God, and the word of his grace; praying, that the Spirit of Truth, may direct your counsels, and influence all your resolutions for his own glory, the good of his church, and the benefit of a fallen world.

Signed in the behalf of the Conference,

JOSEPH BENSON, Secretary
